Christa Janjic-Marti and Cyril Demaria become Partners of Wellershoff & Partners Ltd

Wellershoff & Partners is an independent international research and advisory firm. Its focus is on advising financial institutions and family offices in the fields of economics and financial markets. In both areas, Wellershoff & Partners also acts as an outsourcing partner for research and investment office functions.

Since 2013, Christa Janjic-Marti has been working for Wellershoff & Partners, first as a Senior Economist, and then as Head of Investment Services. She has significantly contributed to the success of the firm in the areas of economic analysis and investment strategies. Following her studies in Cambridge and Lausanne, Mrs Janjic-Marti worked for many years as an economist for emerging markets at UBS Investment Bank in Zurich, Singapore, and London.

Dr. Cyril Demaria has been Head of Private Markets at Wellershoff & Partners for more than two years. His team focuses on analysis and advice in private equity, private debt, and private real asset investments. After studying in Lyon and Paris, he obtained his PhD at the University of St. Gallen. He notably headed private markets research at the Chief Investment Office of UBS Wealth Management in Zurich. Dr. Demaria is also the author of five books on private equity and teaches regularly at EADA and EDHEC. He is an expert for the European Commission, SECA, France Invest, and Invest Europe.

Prof. Dr. Klaus Wellershoff, founder and CEO, comments:

“First-class financial analysis needs a healthy mix of practical experience and empirical research. With our new partners Christa Janjic-Marti and Cyril Demaria, we are setting new standards in the consulting and outsourcing business in the Swiss and European markets.”
